The Essex County Council (Colchester City) (Prohibition of Waiting, Loading and Stopping) and (On-Street Parking Places) (Civil Enforcement Area) (Amendment No.54) Order 2024

Oxford Road

Paid parking schemes can encourage the use of off-street car parks and encourage motorists to consider the use of other modes of sustainable transport. The conversion of bays will allow more efficient and effective enforcement and encourage a greater turnover of spaces (2 hours maximum stay), which will benefit nearby businesses. Dual use resident permit parking or pay parking (pay by phone) bays will still provide residents, their visitors and other motorists with parking spaces. Permit provision (H permits) for the Hospital, now closed, will be removed.

Clarendon Way

Paid parking schemes can encourage the use of off-street car parks and encourage motorists to consider the use of other modes of sustainable transport. The conversion of bays will allow more efficient and effective enforcement and encourage a greater turnover of spaces, which will benefit nearby businesses. Additional permit parking places will be available for holders of an F2 permit only. An increase in dual use resident permit parking or pay parking (pay by phone) bays will provide residents, their visitors and other motorists with parking spaces.

St Johns Green

Converting the existing Limited waiting bays to resident permit parking or pay parking (pay by phone) bays will provide residents, their visitors and other motorists with additional parking spaces.

Paid parking schemes can encourage the use of off-street car parks and encourage motorists to consider the use of other modes of sustainable transport. The conversion of bays will allow more efficient and effective enforcement and encourage a greater turnover of spaces (2 hours maximum stay), which will benefit nearby businesses.

Middleborough

A pay parking (pay by phone) bay will encourage motorists to consider the use of other modes of sustainable transport. The conversion of bays will allow more efficient and effective enforcement.
